

We Walk By Faith

We walk by faith, and not by sight:
No gracious words we hear of him
who spoke as none e'er spoke,
but we believe him near.

We may not touch his hands and side,
Nor follow where he trod;
yet in his promise we rejoice,
and cry "My Lord and God"!

Help then, O Lord, our unbelief,
and may our faith abound;
to call on you when you are near,
and seek where you are found:

That when our life of faith is done in realms of clearer light we may behold you as you are in full and endless sight.

We walk by faith, and not by sight:
No gracious words we hear of him
who spoke as none e'er spoke,
but we believe him near.

Let Us Plead for Faith Alone

Let us plead for faith alone,
faith which by our works is shown;
God it is who justifies,
only faith the grace applies.

Active faith that lives within,
conquers hell and death and sin, hallows whom it first made whole, forms the Savior in the soul.

Let us for this faith contend,
sure salvation is the end;
heaven already is begun,
everlasting life is won.

Only let us persevere till we see our Lord appear, never from the Rock remove,
saved by faith which works by love.

Take My Life, and Let It Be

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee.
Take my moments and my days;
let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee.
Take my silver and my gold;
not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it thine;
it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is thine own;
it shall be thy royal throne.
Take my love, my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.
